Let's take a step back in time. This beautifully re-done farmhouse, circa 1790, holds so much history and is rumored to be part of the Underground Railroad. After going through a full rehab this home is now ready to turn over ownership. Zoned both residential and business provides a ton of opportunities such as a full-time residence, bed and breakfast, office space, boutique hotel, and more! Placed on 5.8 meadow-like acres with sweeping views of the Shawangunk Ridgeline, add great value to this one-of-a-kind home. Enter through the oversized foyer which is the center point of the home. On the right is a large living area with a wood-burning fireplace and original columns and windows keeping the historic charm with modern touches. The formal dining room holds an 8-person dining table, with a second wood-burning fireplace making this the perfect room for hosting dinner parties. The eat-in kitchen offers all new appliances and cabinets with large windows bringing in the view of the ridge and plenty of natural light. Upstairs find 4- nicely sized bedrooms all with high ceilings which is rare for a home of this age. Wide-plank gleaming hardwood floors carry the historic feel of this home all throughout the upstairs level. Three full bathrooms have radiant heated floors, modernized fixtures, and tile work. On the third level, there is finished bonus area for additional home offices, room for guests, or more living space. Conveniently located on 209, gives easy access to Accord and Kerhonkson which holds popular attractions such as hiking at the state preserves and local breweries and restaurants like Arrowwood Brewing, Westwind Orchard, Inness and Mill and Main. 20 minutes to Kingston and New Paltz and 15 to the Village of Ellenville.
