$1,875,000

Enchanting! 33-35 Hickory Road overlooks a burbling tributary of the Esopus, on a private paved road in the woods. This cloistered compound in Willow offers almost thirteen acres of beautifully landscaped and irrigated gardens and paths. Behind its private gate, it holds a 3800 sqft main house, plus two inviting guesthouses, a huge two-car garage, and a gazebo. Available for purchase for the first time since its creation, this architect-designed estate is perfect for multi-generational families, guests, and/or caretakers. The main house has a lovely and large floor to ceiling stone fireplace in the living area, dining room with beamed cathedral ceilings, three bedrooms, two and a half baths, and a home office. It sits amid established gardens and above the stream, with a large deck for entertaining or quiet enjoyment. All three houses have new roofs, and are spaciouly laid-out with decks and wood-water-and-garden views. Completely secluded and magically private - with no visible neighbors - this is a dream opportunity. The exquisite gardens, with water features and stone paths have been lovingly and organically created and well-tended for forty years, and have been featured and recognized in numerous publications and national tours. Low annual HOA fees allow joint care of the private road, and easement to a common pond for picnics and three-season enjoyment. Shown by appointment only, this unique property is a lovely reason to call the Hudson Valley, HOME.
