Welcome to a property where the echoes of the past harmonize with the vast possibilities of the present! Discover the allure of a distinguished 5-bedroom, 1-bathroom, 2,150 sq.ft. farmhouse, a living relic dating back to 1860, standing stoically as a testament to the passage of time. This historical residence beckons for a new chapter, a narrative infused with your personal touch. An attached 2-car garage seamlessly integrates practicality with charm, offering not just parking but a haven for storage solutions. As you traverse the expansive grounds, a piece of living history unfolds—an old 30' x 54' barn adorned with hand-hewn beams, a rustic cathedral of untold stories. This architectural gem isn't just a structure; it's a canvas, an open invitation to envision its metamorphosis into a unique living space, an artist's sanctuary, or an enthralling event venue. Spanning 3.5 acres, the property unfolds its potential, with over half of the land designated as tillable canvas. Picture the fertile soil embracing your dreams of cultivating a thriving vineyard or nurturing an orchard that bears the fruits of your vision. The remaining landscape is a mosaic of nature's beauty—a tapestry of hardwoods, apple orchards showcasing the heritage of older Cornell varieties, an artesian well murmuring its timeless tales, natural springs trickling with life, and a network of trails beckoning exploration and discovery. For those with an affinity for the outdoors, the property's proximity to Sugar Hill State Forest promises an immersive experience in a serene and picturesque environment. Should the thrill of speed and motorsports call, Watkins Glen International, a renowned facility, is a mere 2-1/2 miles away.
