This incredible 25+ acre parcel offers breathtaking views and a unique opportunity to embrace off-the-grid living while still enjoying access to modern conveniences. The southern exposure view of the Esopus Creek and mountains of Mt. Tremper, as well as the complete privacy and seclusion, make it a truly enchanting location. Total acreage includes two separate deeded parcels, adjoining each other. The proximity to grocery stores, restaurants, and ski centers further adds to its appeal for those seeking a balance between tranquility and accessibility. Additionally, the fact that the property borders NYS Forever Wild land at the rear of both lots adds an extraordinary BONUS in terms of natural preservation and the potential for additional recreational opportunities.
