Discover Timeless Elegance in the Heart of Historic Uptown Kingston, NY. Nestled in the center of the charming historic district of Uptown Kingston, this three-story Georgian brick gem, built in 1885, invites you to step into the enchanting ambiance of the 19th century. Boasting 13 rooms, including a full walk-up attic and a captivating studio sunroom with picturesque backyard views, this residence holds a wealth of original details that speak to its rich heritage. As you enter through the center hall, the home unfolds with all generously proportioned rooms, each echoing the grace and scale of a bygone era. The parlor sets the stage for sophisticated gatherings, while the four bedrooms offer a comfortable retreat. A magnificent full walk-up attic promises limitless possibilities for expansion or transformation. While the residence embraces its historical charm, it does require a FULL RENOVATION AND BEING SOLD "AS IS" providing a unique opportunity for those with a vision to restore this beauty to its former glory. The vast double sized rear yard offers ample space for outdoor pursuits, creating a private oasis or build an access dwelling in the heart of the city. Conveniently located just minutes away from the vibrant offerings of the Stockade, this property is poised to become a showcase of historic splendor, awaiting the touch of a discerning owner. Seize the chance to be part of Uptown Kingston's storied legacy and make this residence a timeless testament to your own vision and style. THIS IS A FULL RENOVATION PROJECT. BEING SOLD AS IS.

Addendum: Please note that this is a full reno project. Water main is turned off due to sewer pipe issue. (Estimate for sewer repair available upon request) Being sold AS IS.
