$550,000

Good properties come in big packages! Welcome to 544 Clinton Hollow Rd., a generous package that consists of a completely renovated and move-in ready raised ranch home, a two-story red-roofed barn measuring 2000+ sq. ft., and a long blacktop driveway that is lined with mature apple and pear trees, sitting pretty on a beautiful 4.7 acres of land in the countryside of Salt Point known for its rolling meadows in Dutchess County. The house offers a few highlights. In our area, if you know, you know Utility rules. This home has a powerful on-demand water heater fueled with propane, which takes care of the heating and hot water. It is effective and efficient. The main level living area has been reconfigured to have an open floor plan that flows nicely. The lower level has a full bath, a living area with a fireplace, and a bedroom suitable for a guest's stay. The gleaming hardwood floor runs through the main living area and the bedrooms; durable vinyl planks anchor the lower level and the kitchen. An expanded deck provides a pleasant spot for outdoor living, which we all enjoy. Central Air Conditioning assists with climate control. The interior selects a sleek and cool color scheme that is coherent and much on trend. A two-car garage completes the main house. The barn is in excellent condition, with concrete floors and electricity. This 2000+ sq.ft space provides a plethora of usages and impressive potential. It is a rare find and is truly valuable. Come take a look! Experience the gorgeous countryside and this inviting property. It could be your home sweet home!
