Down a long private driveway sits this quintessential country getaway in complete seclusion. Enter the expansive living room and take in vaulted ceilings and exposed second-floor loft, a woodstove with stone chimney, and the warm, natural aesthetic unique to a log cabin. French doors leading to the back deck makes the perfect area for indoor-outdoor entertaining. On one side of the living room is a spacious kitchen and dining room. Attention immediately falls on the Heartland Classic six-burner stove, which further adds to the rustic cabin feel. Two nice sized bedrooms and a full bath round out the first floor. Upstairs is the primary bedroom and full bath with jacuzzi tub. The aforementioned loft would make for a great den or home office. Sit and enjoy nature on the covered rocking chair porch overlooking the yard and picturesque Glad Kilpt Kill, a calm, meandering waterway. This private country escape is a short 10 minute drive to the center of Stone Ridge and the picturesque Ashokan Reservoir, 20 minutes to Kingston, and is close to area hiking spot like Mohonk Preserve and Minnewaska State Park.
