This 1960's sprawling ranch has 4 large bedrooms and 3.5 baths—room to breathe—inside and out! From the second you drive into the extra-wide cul-de-sac you begin to relax. Peace and quiet in uptown Kingston was never so complete as on this double-lot parcel. It has all the amenities, and then some: an oversize 2-car garage, a stone fireplace, a sun room, a graceful half-moon stone patio, a large park-like yard, and even a tennis court! Step into a large foyer with two main bedroom suites to one side; and then living, dining, and family rooms to the other. Easy circular flow and an eat-in-kitchen that includes corner windows, wood counters, a 6 burner cook top and a breakfast bar. Windows, windows, and more windows. Skylights as well in the family room with two sets of glass sliders (that straddle the stone hearth) and open into a 10 x 30 tiled sun room with an indoor BBQ grill, or, let your party spill out onto the half-moon shaped stone patio where you can enjoy iced tea as you watch your guests play frisbee or croquet! The yard is expansive and includes a fully-fenced tennis court. It might also support a pool if desired. The 2-car garage opens to another smaller foyer/side entrance and makes it easy to bring in groceries to stock the hallway pantry closet. Down the hall are 2 more ample bedrooms that share a classic blue mid-century bath. Close proximity to uptown Kingston's shopping, farmer's market, schools, and many restaurants provide city-central living and yet you are minutes to Woodstock, Saugerties, and the Catskill Mountains. Bring your boat and your skis, and your green thumb (start your own mini-farm right in your own back yard). Need storage? You could play shuffleboard down in the basement or create a space to store your wine collection, have a craft studio, or to make Limoncello. This home has it all ... including: a newer roof, an automatic generator, central A/C, and city water and sewer. With a bit of updating and your personal touches this ranch home will be the talk of the town.
